12 vs.

13 LADERA DEVELOPMENT, LLC,
14 a Nevada limited liability company,

15 Defendant.

Case No. 3:18-cv-00124-RCJ-WGC

ORDER

16 Plaintiff filed five separate motions for summary judgment totaling 124 pages excluding 17 exhibits. (ECF Nos. 124–28.) Defendant moves to strike these motions on the ground that they 18 violate the Court’s local rules (among other arguments). (ECF No. 130.) Specifically, Defendant
19 cites to LR 7-3(a), which reads, in pertinent part, “Motions for summary judgment . . . are limited
20 to 30 pages, excluding exhibits. . . . Parties must not circumvent this rule by filing multiple
21 motions.” (emphasis added). The Court agrees with Defendant; the plain language of this rule
22 proscribes the filing of multiple motions for summary judgment without leave of this Court. The 23 Court may deny or strike any motion that is not filed in accordance with the local rules. See LR IA 24 10-1(d). The Court therefore grants Defendant’s motion and denies Plaintiff’s motions for summary judgment without prejudice. Plaintiff may refile a motion for summary judgment by June 28, 2021. If Plaintiff truly needs to file more than thirty pages for the issues on summary judgment, it may file a motion under LR 7-3(c) to exceed the page limits.
